

Federation of Western Outdoor Clubs Autumn Meeting
10am to 4pm, Saturday, September 28th, 2019
McMenamins Olympic Club
Centralia, Washington

The Federation invites member clubs and members to its Autumn meeting this September 28th at McMenamins historic Olympic Club across from the train station in Centralia, Washington. FWOC is postponing its next full Convention until the Fall of 2020. The Autumn meeting will feature updates on FWOC, the election of officers, voting on Resolutions and Conservation presentations. A complimentary luncheon will be served. We are encouraging attendees to come by Amtrak train from Seattle or Portland to lower our carbon emissions.

Olympic Club's magnificent mahogany bar with lead glass canopies.

McMenamins is noted for its restoration of historic sites into trendy restaurants and hotels. The infamous Olympic Club in Centralia, Washington opened in 1908 and had its first opulent remodel in 1913. It was the posh rendezvous for gamblers, train robbers, bootleggers and ladies of the evening. McMenamins' updated Olympic Club has its historic bar, a restaurant, movie theatre, meeting room and 27 hotel rooms and halls with historic photographs. Attendees who wish to spend the night may make reservations online at www.mcmenamins.com.